

ROC FAASTeam presents:

FAASTeam ROC FSDO Flight Instructor Forum Spring 2016

At this Flight Instructor Forum, we will be discussing getting ready for the flying season, and recent changes to policy and procedures.

One of the key topics as you start flying again, is, is the aircraft really airworthy, and how confident am I in my mechanic and his work. We will discuss some considerations and personal observations.

Considerations for a tailored Flight Review will be discussed as well. Tailored to the Client, the aircraft, avionics, and style of flying to be conducted.

Bill Abbott is our new FAASTeam Program Manager.
